Meet the challenge

The world in which we operate is in a constant state of change. Changes in laws, business practice and societal attitudes make great strides in the improving the lot of many, while those same changes create new areas of concern and inequality for others.

Recent legislative activity affecting Australia include the Victorian Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act of 2006, which came into full effect from the 1 January 2008; and also in 2008, Australia ratified the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities.

Service organisations are under constant pressure to do more with less.

- Additional Statutory reporting
- Greater staff autonomy and flexibility
- Improved Governance
- New Compliance requirements

It is essential that our tools properly support the expanding workload that we are required to perform, without consuming more of our scarce resources.

"Staff interviews suggested that many case workers lost at least five hours of work time every week in information duplication, searching, and inefficiencies stemming from the lack of an integrated system."

Take the next step

Human Rights Advocacy Organizer provides a new operating paradigm, it has been developed in consultation with the services sector, and incorporates the features required to assist your organisation to meet the challenges of doing more with less.

Human Rights Advocacy Organizer is more than just another software application, it acts as a silent collaborative partner bringing real efficiencies to the administration, documentation and reporting tasks. It frees time to allow you to do more of what you do best, building relationships with people. While at the same time ensuring that you are:

- More productive
- More effective
- Better organised

The latest Microsoft development technologies and security features have been used to build this powerful and flexible application. This ensures its suitability for use by professional organisations in the Service industry.

Enjoy the benefits

Providing effective Service always comes down to the classic questions "Who, What, When and Where" and the more modern question "How Much".

Human Rights Advocacy Organizer helps you to answer these questions by offering a complete solution for the management of

- Client and Stakeholder contact details
- Case Notes, Communications and supporting Notes and Documents, Merge Templates
- Appointment calendar
- Time recording for Service, Travel, Research, Administration, etc
- Enquiry Management, and so much more... All in the context of an operating framework which keeps the activity focused on the end goal and the strategy to achieve it.
